Wedding expo set to make dreams come true

After challenging times, couples will descend on the Brisbane Showgrounds this Sunday for their chance to plan their dream weddings once again.

The Your Local Wedding Guide Expo will showcase the region's best wedding professionals, from entertainment and photography to hair and makeup, creating an ultimate one stop shop.

The free event will have everything that couples need to plan their dream wedding including expo specials, local designers, fantastic prices, as well as a major prize package to be won, valued at $3,500.

Couples can meet with exhibitors face-to-face to discuss their dream wedding designs and find the right suppliers to suit all ideas and styles imaginable.

All attendees will also receive a free copy of Your Local Wedding Guide magazine, inspiration, ideas, and one-on-one advice on how to plan the perfect wedding and celebrate that special moment.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said it's great to have the popular event back at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

"Getting married is one of the most important days in someone's life and it's wonderful that couples can start to plan their dream weddings once again," Mr Coyle said.

"Not only are couples able to meet with exhibitors, but they can choose the venue for their wedding, which could be right here at the Brisbane Showgrounds either in our Royal International Convention Centre, or one of our other 21 versatile venue spaces."

The Your Local Wedding Guide Expo will open at 9.00 am and run until 3.00 pm this Sunday February 27.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site.
