Queensland's largest caravan show pulls up at the Brisbane Showgrounds

Queensland's largest caravanning event is set to attract thousands of outdoor enthusiasts as it opens at the Brisbane Showgrounds today.

The Let's Go Queensland Caravan & Camping Supershow is the only event of its kind to feature almost every major brand of caravan on the market today.

More than 200 exhibitors will be displaying the very latest models of caravans, motorhomes, campervans, camper/tent trailers and slide-on campers during the six-day event.

A new addition to this year's line-up are VANbassadors, which are several seasoned caravanning families who will be sharing their travel stories on the VANbassador Stage.

Caravanning Queensland's popular Weight and Towing Masterclasses are back featuring Jeff Palmer (Tow-Ed), Gary Gardiner (Total Towing Setups) and Dave Lewis (Weightcheck).

They are ready to arm show-goers with vital information and tips to ensure they hit the road on their next caravan adventure safely and with confidence.

One lucky visitor will win a Jayco Jpod X Camper trailer valued at nearly $30,000.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said he was expecting a bumper turnout for the event which has been coming to the Brisbane Showgrounds for an incredible 44 years.

"Travelling in your own country is still hugely popular and caravanning is now attracting a broader cross-section of the community including young families seeking lifestyle changes," Mr Coyle said.

"The Let's Go Caravan & Camping Supershow's long standing association with the Brisbane Showgrounds is a credit to our dedicated staff and versatile venue.

"It's the second largest annual event to be held at our historic Showgrounds precinct, behind the Royal Queensland Show (Ekka), which is only 60 days away," he said.

The Supershow runs from June 7-12 from 9am-5pm (Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday & Sunday) and 9am-6pm (Friday & Saturday). A one-day pass is $20, two-day pass $35, children are free and concession tickets available at <https://www.caravanqld.com.au/events/queensland-caravan-camping-supershow/>

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au
