Get caravan and camping ready plus a side of Bluey!

Caravan and camping lovers are expected to roll into the Brisbane Showgrounds from this Thursday for Queensland's last chance to grab a deal on an Australian camping holiday before the summer.

The Let's Go Brisbane Caravan & Outdoor Sale running from 26 to 29 October showcases caravanning and camping essentials from beginner basics to extreme caravanning needs.

It will be a family affair at the event on the weekend (28,29 October) when the kids can enjoy fun activities in the Kidzklub and Clown School on Stockmen's Rest and see the global children's TV stars Bluey and Bingo come alive in the Bluey Live Interactive Experience show.

More than 100 exhibitors will showcase the very latest caravans, motorhomes, campervans, camper trailers, tent trailers, recreational products, and accessories during the four-day event.

Caravanning Queensland's popular Weight and Towing Masterclasses will be at the show, with favourites Jeff Palmer (Tow-Ed) and Gary Gardiner (Total Towing Setups) providing demonstrations.

The training presenters will arm show-goers with vital information and tips to ensure they hit the road safely and with confidence when travelling both on and 'off-road'.

One lucky show visitor will also have the opportunity to win $5,000 cash and a myCOOLMAN Summer Prize Pack valued at $1,944 RRP.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said he was excited to host one of Brisbane's most popular leisure events once again.

"With summer just around the corner it's a perfect time for families to start planning their Christmas caravan and camping trips," Mr Coyle said.

"We're expecting families to make the most of these warmer days, strolling through the exhibits at the Showgrounds and visualising their summer holidays with loved ones.

"Caravanning Queensland has been holding their events at our Showgrounds for an extraordinary 45 years and we're very proud to once again host this fantastic event".

The outdoor sale runs from October 26-29 from 9am-4pm (Thursday, Friday, Saturday & Sunday). A one-day pass is $16, a two-day pass $27, children are free and concession tickets available at <https://www.caravanqld.com.au/>
