Discover the future of living at Electric Dreams

Experience everything electric at Australia's largest future-living event at the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend.

The Electric Dreams Exhibition will feature the latest and greatest in electric technologies from family vehicles, to motorcycles, sporting goods and home technology, the exhibition will have something for everyone.

The event will showcase a huge range of products and services plus a jam-packed entertainment schedule in the Live Action Arena including extreme riders and professional drivers.

With competitions galore and fun activities for kids, Electric Dreams is a must-do day out for all ages.

The event will also showcase the world's leading electric vehicle brands including Lexus, Polestar, Waydoo and Fliteboard.

Also on show will be technology designed to make life around the home easier ranging from entertainment and gaming solutions to systems controlling lights, doors, windows and blinds remotely and alternative power sources.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said the Electric Dreams Exhibition offered visitors a unique opportunity to explore the future in one location.

"We are excited to be hosting the nation's largest event of its kind, which gives visitors the chance to learn about tomorrow's living, today," Mr Coyle said.

"This weekend, the Brisbane Showgrounds will come alive with cutting-edge innovative technology on show across recreation, living and automotive.

The two-day event starts this Saturday at 9am, for tickets and further information go to <https://www.electricdreams-exhibition.com.au/>.
