Lift your spirits at Brisbane Gin Festival

The river city will be filled to the brim with gin experts and enthusiasts at this year's Brisbane Gin Festival, being held this weekend at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

For those looking to shake up their weekend plans and sip on some delicious G&Ts while mingling with some of the country's most talented gin distillers, the three-day event kicks off in the Exhibition Building this Friday and runs until Sunday.

An exciting mix of more than 40 new and familiar Australian distillers will be showcasing their finest hand-crafted gins at the Brisbane Gin Festival, plus there will be a range of food to tempt taste buds.

Long Rays will be supporting the festival with a range of mixers to enhance the G&Ts. All tasting is included in the ticket price and attendees can fill their complimentary tote bags with bottles of take-home purchases.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said this was the first time the event had been held at the Showgrounds.

"We're thrilled to welcome the Brisbane Gin Festival to the Brisbane Showgrounds this year, with the event an exciting celebration of Australian craft gin, bringing together distillers and enthusiasts in a vibrant setting," he said.

The event will take place from 5pm to 8pm Friday, 1pm to 4pm and 5pm to 8pm Saturday and 12pm to 3pm Sunday, with tickets available online.
