Brisbane Showgrounds brimming with pre-loved fashion finds

Thousands of fashion lovers and bargain hunters will descend on the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend for Australia's biggest fashion market.

Over two days (Saturday 28 and Sunday 29 March), Fashion Thrift Society will feature more than 200 vintage, pre-loved and local brand sellers all in the one location in Marquee 1 and Sideshow Alley.

Shoppers will have access to thousands of racks filled with second-hand fashion bargains including one-of-a-kind pieces, plus Brisbane's biggest kilo sale, where pre-loved clothing starts from just $5 per kilo.

Beyond the racks, visitors can enjoy food trucks, a pop-up bar, live music, beauty installations, free barber cuts, complimentary haircuts and styling, and more.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said they had been hosting the popular event since 2022.

"We're looking forward to welcoming Fashion Thrift Society back to the Showgrounds for another exciting weekend of sustainable fashion," he said.

"We've seen the event grow significantly since it was first held here - and the fact the organisers are holding three events at the Showgrounds this year is a testament to its popularity and continued success."

Fashion Thrift Society will run from 10am to 4pm daily, with tickets available online. Shoppers can enjoy free entry during the last hour of each day.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au
