Brisbane Showgrounds feline fine

The Brisbane Showgrounds will be filled with purr-sonalities when it welcomes Australia's first national cat convention, the Oz Feline Fair & CATstravaganza, this weekend.

This two-day event will be held on Saturday 3 May and Sunday 4 May at the Brisbane Showgrounds Exhibition Building, showcasing the cutest creatures along with an artisan marketplace, a cat cosplay competition, pat a cat (or many cats), or guests can simply just sit back and watch all the purr-fect feline action.

A highlight of the inaugural event will be the chance to see world renowned celebrity cat judge and influencer Steven Meserve, who is visiting all the way from the USA.

With organisers promising this as Australia's national tour of the year with 'more drama than The Eras Tour and more fluff than Gaga's wardrobe' it's a cat-stravaganza not to be missed!

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said he and his team were looking forward to welcoming the event to the Brisbane Showgrounds for the first time.

"We're very excited to host the Oz Feline Fair & CATstravaganza in Brisbane as part of Australia's first national cat convention," he said.

"We're no strangers to hosting show stopping animals at the Brisbane Showgrounds during Ekka each year, so these felines will be warmly welcomed over the weekend."

The event will run from 9am to 4:30pm Saturday, 3 May and Sunday, 4 May. Tickets are essential: www.ozfelinefair.com.au/events/brisbane/
