New national Pet Show springs into the Brisbane Showgrounds

The Pet Show, Australia's first national show celebrating all the pets in your life, is bounding into the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend.

The Pet Show is all about positive pet ownership, sharing education, entertainment, and products for all pets from tails to scales and everything in between.

More than 15,000 pet lovers are expected to attend and enjoy kitten cuddle and puppy pat zones, celebrity vet chats with Dr Katrina Warren, Dr Kate Adams, and Dr Kate Mornement, pet owner talks, and a Cat Competition in partnership with Cats Australia.

Kids who are dreaming of becoming a vet can book into the Future Vet Kids Workshop (for 7–11-year-olds) and the Blood Draw and Vet Physical Exam Workshop (for 12–15-year-olds) where they will learn basic first aid, pet CPR and pet medical check skills.

The two-day show will also feature family-friendly entertainment, products to try and buy for your furry, scaly, feathered and fluffy friends, meet and greet sessions, face painters, and food trucks.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said it was exciting to host this new event for the first time in Brisbane.

“The Pet Show is the perfect place to celebrate your pet with a diverse range of activities and experiences on offer for every pet lover,” he said.

The Pet Show will be held this Saturday and Sunday (July 1-2) from 10am to 4pm each day at the Royal International Convention Centre at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

Entry is $25 Adults (18+), $10 Children (3 – 17 years), with discounted tickets for families and pensioners, and kids under 3 are free. Part proceeds from the event will support the RSCPA's work.

Tickets are available for purchase online at The Pet Show.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au.
