The Brisbane Showgrounds' busy music concert schedule will expand to welcome hard electronic dance music to the lineup when Netherland DJs Dual Damage debut tomorrow.

For the first time Shokk Events, in collaboration with Hardstyle giants HSU Events, will deliver the Dual Damage Hardstyle event at the Brisbane Showgrounds tomorrow (Saturday April 18), featuring two international headliners, two interstate guests and Brisbane's best local Hard EDM artists.

The world's top Hard Dance talent will entertain Hard EDM fans with a huge laser show and energetic vibes in Marquee 1 in Sideshow Alley from 4pm to 10pm.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said they were excited to welcome a new genre of music to the precinct's diverse festival calendar.

"We are delighted to host the biggest Dual Damage Australian tour to date. They are sure to deliver a high energy set," said Mr Coyle.
