New arrival as baby expo makes its Brisbane Showgrounds debut

Australia's most stylish baby expo will be staged at the Brisbane Showgrounds for the first time this weekend.

The One Fine Baby Expo will be held in the Exhibition Building on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 October, showcasing more than 100 brands and services for families and expectant parents to explore, try and shop.

The free event will feature a Pram Trial Track where visitors can test-drive strollers to find their perfect fit, expert talks on the One Fine Baby Live Stage including first aid confidence and birth tips, free and confidential advice at the Advice Hub, a kids play area, and much more.

Attendees can also take advantage of exclusive expo-only deals across maternity, baby and nursery essentials, plus take home plenty of complimentary items such as nappies and wipes.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said the venue was proud to welcome the popular baby and pregnancy expo for the first time.

"We're thrilled to host the One Fine Baby Expo at the Brisbane Showgrounds - a family-friendly event that brings together the very best in baby and parenting products," Mr Coyle said.

"It's always exciting to see new events choose our venue and we look forward to welcoming thousands of parents and parents-to-be over the weekend."

The One Fine Baby Expo will take place from 9am to 3pm on Saturday and Sunday, with free tickets available online.
