Wheels turning for the ultimate caravan show at the Brisbane Showgrounds

Adventure is in the air as Queensland's largest caravanning event returns to the Brisbane Showgrounds this week, showcasing almost every major RV brand available on the market today.

Across five huge days (Wednesday 3 to Sunday 7 June), the Let's Go Queensland Caravan and Camping Supershow will see more than 200 exhibitors showcasing the latest model caravans, motorhomes, campervans, offroad recreational vehicles, budget friendly camper trailers, as well as a wide range of gadgets and accessories.

Visitors can also explore information on caravan parks and holiday destinations from across Australia, enjoy great show specials, speak with industry experts, and compare products to find the best fit for their needs.

The team from Talking Towing will deliver daily VANSafe Masterclasses covering essential towing topics, while the VAN Life QLD Stage will feature live conversations with well-known lifestyle personalities including the team from Creek to Coast, The Feel Good Family and Aussie Destinations Unknown.

A regular favourite at the event, Mick the Camp Oven Cook will also be returning to share his bush cooking skills and prepare some of his favourite camp oven recipes.

Families are well catered for, with a daily live snake show plus kids' activities across the weekend including a climbing wall, face painting and glitter tattoo artists.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said the event continued to be a major highlight for outdoor lifestyle enthusiasts.

"The Let's Go Queensland Caravan and Camping Supershow is one of the most anticipated events on our annual calendar, with tens of thousands of people expected to attend," he said.
