Fight Night to Raise Funds for Charity

Hundreds of people will don their finest to cheer on their friends in the ring in the Fight for a Cause boxing charity event at the Brisbane Showgrounds this Saturday night.

The black-tie event will see guests enjoy dinner, several exciting boxing matches and live charity raffles and auctions.

This year Fight for a Cause is raising much needed funds for Destiny Rescue, an international not for profit organisation fighting human trafficking and giving vulnerable children freedom and guiding them towards a future filled with safety and purpose.

Fight for a Cause puts male and female participants through a 10-week boxing training program and they are matched up with an opponent based on height, weight and ability for their bouts at the Main Event.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said he was delighted to welcome back the Fight for a Cause event.

“Fight for a Cause is an evening of elegance and excitement which has become a much-anticipated event for the Brisbane business community,” Mr Coyle said.

“It’s great to see so many corporates and business people making the leap from the desk to the boxing ring – all in the name of charity!

Limited tickets are still available and they include a two course sit down dinner and four hour premium drinks package. Tickets can be purchased at <https://fightforacause.com.au/tickets/>
