Let's Go Caravan and Camping Show to show you the gear and the way

Open road tourism will be a key theme at this year's Let's Go Queensland Caravan & Camping Supershow at the Brisbane Showgrounds running from this Wednesday to Sunday.

The event is bigger than ever hosting over 200 exhibitors and giving attendees a showcase all the latest models of caravans and camping essentials plus the new RV Touring Stage.

The RV Touring Stage will be a hub dedicated to open road travelling information and advice, featuring daily presentations from Hema Maps, Workabout Australia, RACQ and Drive Queensland plus The Feel Good Family will be there providing the ultimate tips and information for road tripping.

Almost every type of recreational vehicle will be on display, from Caravans, Motorhomes and Campervans through to Camper/Tent Trailers, Slide Ons, Roof Top Tents and accessories.

The Supershow will also see the return of the popular Weight, Towing and Touring Masterclasses hosted by Jeff Palmer and Gary Gardiner; Camp Oven Cooking and more.

One lucky attendee will have the chance to win a Stoney Creek Scout X Off-Road Hybrid Caravan valued at $43,990 RRP along with a range of other prizes and discounts across the show.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said that he was delighted to welcome back the popular event which continued to evolve offering new experiences each time.

"The new RV Touring Hub will equip attendees with valuable tips and tricks to help them confidently explore Queensland and beyond," Mr Coyle said.

"The Let's Go Caravan and Camping Supershow is a long-time favourite of many Brisbane and Queensland residents, and we are proud to be hosting them for yet another year."

The event will be held at the Brisbane Showgrounds and run from 9am – 5pm this Wednesday (June 5) to this Saturday (June 8) and 9am-4pm this Sunday (June 9). Tickets are to be purchased online before the event. To find out more click here.
