A Spring Finish at the Showgrounds for Bridge to Brisbane

Competitors taking part in Queensland's largest community fun run, The Sunday Mail Transurban Bridge to Brisbane, will cross the finish line at the Brisbane Showgrounds this Sunday on the event's new springtime date.

Traditionally held in August, the Bridge to Brisbane event will see more than 30,000 people participate in either the 4.5km and 10km courses which both wind up on Gregory Terrace at the Showgrounds.

The Showgrounds will also be the Race Office where competitors can collect their race kit from tomorrow to Saturday and then on the event day the precinct will accommodate the finishing line and the Finish Village.

At the 2023 Finish Village competitors can re-fuel after the race and celebrate their achievement, with food trucks, live entertainment and more.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said they were thrilled to once again be part of the high-profile fun run.

"We're proud to have a long association with Bridge to Brisbane and we look forward to seeing tens of thousands of people cross the finish line on Sunday," Mr Coyle said.

"The event will utilise both indoor and outdoor spaces at our venue, including Alexandria Park, and Building 8 which consist of two acres of green and event space, and our iconic John Reid Pavilion," he said.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located just 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor / outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au
