Excitement builds for Queensland's largest LEGO expo at the Brisbane Showgrounds

Queensland's premier LEGO expo will take over the Exhibition Building at the Brisbane Showgrounds this weekend, featuring more than 12 million LEGO bricks and intricate displays by some of Australia's best builders.

The two-day BBX2025 LEGO Fan Expo, running tomorrow and Sunday (September 13 & 14), will feature hundreds of jaw-dropping creations, hands-on building zones, plus a wide range of retailers offering new and hard-to-find sets, parts, accessories and LEGO lifestyle products.

The event, run by BrisBricks, is expected to attract close to 10,000 attendees, with a crowd favourite each year the pop culture-inspired displays including Pokémon and Star Wars.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said they were proud to continue hosting such a vibrant community event.

"We've had the pleasure of hosting the BBX LEGO Fan Expo for four years now and each year we're amazed at the LEGO wonderland that transforms the Exhibition Building," he said.

"The expo is a fantastic day out for families, collectors and LEGO lovers of all ages."

The BBX2025 Lego Fan Expo is open from 9am to 5pm Saturday and 9am to 4pm Sunday, with tickets available online.

The Brisbane Showgrounds precinct is located 1.5km from Brisbane's CBD and is Queensland's largest indoor/outdoor events site. Visit www.brisbaneshowgrounds.com.au
