Glamour waltzes into the Brisbane Showgrounds

The stage is set to usher in the 2024 Queensland Open DanceSport Championships this weekend at the Brisbane Showgrounds.

The two-day festival will be full of glitz and glamour as ballroom and Latin dancers from across Australia compete for the prestigious title of DanceSport Champion.

There will be dancers of all ages and abilities, from recreational to professional, taking their shot at the crown performing dances including the Cha Cha, Waltz, the Tango and Jive.

Brisbane Showgrounds General Manager of Venue Sales and Marketing Jago Coyle said that he was excited to welcome the Queensland Open DanceSport Championships to the Brisbane Showgrounds for the first time.

“We are delighted to host this display of talent here at the Brisbane Showgrounds, which will see marvellous dancers come from across Australia to compete,” Mr Coyle said.

“This is a great opportunity for the Brisbane community to experience the thrill and elegance of ballroom and Latin dancing.”

The 2024 Queensland Open DanceSport Championships will be held at the Royal International Convention Centre tomorrow and Sunday. To find out more click here.
